

MICHAEL “MIKE” HICKEY, '84 NAPLES, FLORIDA

EMPLOYMENT

Mike Hickey is retired executive vice president and president of Ecolab Inc. During his 35-year tenure at Ecolab, he has held a number of key executive positions, including executive vice president and president of Institutional North America, senior vice president of multiple operating units, as well as senior vice president of global business development. He began his career at Ecolab as a territory manager-in-training in 1985. Ecolab is the global leader in water, hygiene and energy technologies and services that protect people and vital resources. Mike has completed executive programs through University of Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business, CEIBS International Business School in Shanghai China, IESE Business School at the University of Navarra in Sao Paulo, Stanford University and Pennsylvania State University.

PERSONAL

Mike and his wife, Kristeen (Kris), split time between Naples, Florida, and Deephaven, Minnesota. They have five children and five grandchildren. Mike is on the board of Standex International. He is a past chair of the board International Foodservice Manufacturers Association and National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation. He also served on the board of directors of several organizations including the National Restaurant Association, St. Catherine University, Ronald McDonald House Charities, International Franchise Association, and the Women's Foodservice Forum.

SBU HISTORY

Mike and Kris are both 1984 graduates. Mike graduated with a bachelor's degree in marketing and Kris graduated with a bachelor's degree in chemistry. Mike was chosen to be the 2018 Leader in Residence, SBU's annual leadership program that brings industry and community leaders to campus and highlights diverse perspectives as part of a series funded by a gift from the Class of 1963.

CAROL SCHUMACHER, '78 ROGERS, ARKANSAS

EMPLOYMENT

Carol is an investor relations and corporate affairs executive, with international and multi-industry experience at public companies. She has a track record of providing strategic counsel to C-suite leaders and boards, helping to enhance reputations and shareholder value.

Having served as a senior corporate officer at five international public companies, including Walmart, Home Depot and Intercontinental Exchange, Carol now is leveraging her experience in investor relations, corporate governance, stakeholder engagement and reputation management to advise both public and private companies. She was Walmart's Investor Relations Officer for 11 years. Among recent projects are the development of initial ESG reports for several public companies.

PERSONAL

Carol and her husband, Bob Kelly, have one son. Bob is an avid fan of the Bonnies. Carol received her M.A. in Public Relations from Rowan University. Carol was elected in 2021 to the Board of Managers of privately held Water Tower Research, an investor engagement and stakeholder communications platform. She served as an adviser to two start-up firms, a strategy execution software provider (2018 – current), and a manufacturer of UVC light sanitizing devices (2019-2021). She completed Deloitte's Board Ready Program at its Center for Board Effectiveness in 2021. Among other non-profit organizations she serves currently is the Advisory Board of Retailers United, helping small retail entrepreneurs launch their businesses.

SBU HISTORY

Carol graduated from St. Bonaventure in 1978 with a degree in journalism. In the 1990s, she was an active volunteer; member of the National Alumni Board from 1988-1996 and the NAB President from 1994-1996; and was honored as Alumna of the Year in 1998. She presented Daniel Edelman with the Thomas Mosser Award at the 1998 Hellinger Awards Luncheon in New York City. In 2003, Carol was an Olean Morning Call speaker. She is a member of the Jandoli School Advisory Council.

STEVE BARRY, '88 ASHBURN, VIRGINIA

EMPLOYMENT

Upon graduation from St. Bonaventure in 1988, Steve joined KPMG in Rochester and since 2018 has been a senior partner in KPMG's national office. He is currently the National Partner in Charge, Risk Management – Inspections and is based in KPMG's Washington, D.C. and New York offices. During his 34 years with KPMG, Steve has been an SEC Reviewing Partner, which designates him as one of KPMG's most experienced technical partners and has served some of KPMG's largest clients in the airline, technology and real estate industries. Throughout his career he has served as a national instructor, teaching numerous courses on accounting and auditing topics.

Steve is a certified public accountant in New York and Virginia and is a certified government financial manager. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State and Virginia Societies of Certified Public Accountants.

PERSONAL

Steve serves on the Board of Trustees of Ford's Theatre in Washington, D.C., and has been a board member of the Washington, D.C. chapters of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and the National Association of Corporate Directors. From 2000 through 2015 Steve served as a board member of the United States Selective Service System and for many years Steve has been a master instructor for the State of Virginia's Department of Wildlife Resources Outdoor Education Program. Steve and his wife, Shirley, live in Ashburn, Virginia, and have four children: Stephanie – St. Bonaventure class of 2020; Sean – United States Navy Corpsman; Michelle – member of St. Bonaventure's 2022 incoming freshman class; and Lauren, who is a rising high school senior.

SBU HISTORY

Steve graduated from St. Bonaventure in 1988, summa cum laude, with a dual major in finance and accounting. In 2015 Steve joined the Board of Trustees of St. Bonaventure and has chaired the Athletics and Finance committees.

FR. DANIEL HORAN, O.F.M., '05

NOTRE DAME, INDIANA

EMPLOYMENT

Fr. Dan is professor of Philosophy, Religious Studies and Theology and director of the Center for Spirituality at Saint Mary's College in Notre Dame, Indiana, and previously held the Dun Scotus Chair of Spirituality at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago.

PERSONAL

Fr. Dan earned a Ph.D. from Boston College and an M.A. and M.Div. from the Washington Theological Union. A columnist for the National Catholic Reporter, he is the author of 14 books, including most recently, "A White Catholic's Guide to Racism and Privilege" and "The Way of the Franciscans: A Prayer Journey Through Lent." He also serves on the Board of Regents of the Franciscan School of Theology at the University of San Diego, where he previously served as chair of the Academic Affairs Committee and Secretary of the Board.

SBU HISTORY

Fr. Dan graduated in 2005 from St. Bonaventure University with an honors B.A. in theology and a minor in journalism. He was elected to the SBU Board of Trustees in 2017 and has served as chair of the Franciscan Mission Committee, the Branding, Marketing and Communications Committee, and as a member of the most recent SBU Presidential Search Committee.

